

“Who Said It?” Bingo

for Luke chapters 1 and 2

(read the text before playing the game)

Players choose nine words from this list, and write one word on each square of their 3x3 bingo cards.

John, Mary, Elizabeth, Zechariah, God, neighbors, angel(s), Luke, Jesus, Simeon, Gabriel

Supply each player with “tokens” to place on the squares. As each quote is read, players place a token on the square bearing the name of the person who said it. (Note: players only have 9 of the 11 names. There will occasionally be quotes by people they don’t have on their board.) There should be enough clue for several games. (Sometimes kids like to keep playing until everyone has a bingo, then start over. It’s up to you to determine when to end one game and begin another.)
